SLOT MACHINES CLOSED

Law and Order League Wins Victory in Campaign for Morality.

Within the past few days every slot machine in the city has been put out of commission as a result of an order issued by the police department, and the indications are that they will be permanently closed. This is the first victory for the recently organized law and order league. This organization came into existence immediately after the election, and the first thing done was to demand war on the slot machines and gambling. A few days after the announcement was made that the league would oppose these things, the chief of police came out with a statement that he refused to be bluffed and that he would continue the policy he had been following. In the face of this declaration his attention was called to the statute on the matter of slot machines and shortly thereafter he sent a written copy of the statute to each of the sergeants who in turn called it to the attention of the other officers. The order was passed along the line that the machines must be closed. In some instances the machines were turned to the wall, and in other places obstructions were placed over the slot, thus putting them out of business. It is expected that the law and order league will next demand that the machines be removed from the premises entirely and will then turn its attention to the gambling question.

DIES FROM HIS INJURIES.

Increase of Fatalities Resulting From the Wreck at Montello.

An addition to the list of dead from the wreck at Montello, which occurred Thursday evening, was made yesterday, when another of the Italian laborers died at the Ogden general hospital, where he had been taken for treatment. The names of the dead Italians are J. Plodie and G. Berelli. The latter had his ear torn off in the wreck and one of his legs was crushed to a shapeless mass. Frank Loeze, the engineer of the freight train, is still unconscious from concussion of the brain sustained when he jumped from the flying train just before the Montello yards were reached. His recovery is yet in doubt. B. Tardell, another Italian laborer, is suffering from a fracture of the skull, a broken arm and internal injuries. The others seem to have escaped serious injury and were known to have been on the train prior to the accident. They were also killed in the wreck.

NO COAL; CARS STOP.

Street Railway System Out of Operation Until Afternoon.

The Ogden Rapid Transit company was forced to cease operating its cars for the second time this fall, yesterday, on account of the scarcity of coal. No cars were run on any of the city lines until 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Shortly before that time a car of coal was received from the Union Pacific, and as soon as steam could be gotten up the cars commenced running. It is expected that the supply received yesterday afternoon will supply the power house for several days, during which time it is expected that another supply will be received. The Amalgamated Sugar company's plant was also about to shut down when supply was received sufficient to relieve the emergency, and no further trouble is anticipated by the officers of that company. There is a great shortage of coal in the city and the people are finding it hard to get their orders filled. As the coal arrives it is being dished out in small quantities. So far no cases of suffering have been reported on account of the small supply.

BECRAFT STORE ROBBED.

Burglars Help Themselves to Pistols and Razors Worth $175.

By prying off the fastening of a rear window burglars gained an entrance to the store of L. H. Becraft, Thursday night, and carried off plunder valued at $175. The thieves picked out thirty-two of the best pistols in the place, as well as twenty of the finest razors, and then retreated. The theft was not discovered until the place was opened for business yesterday morning. This is the second time that the store has been robbed, and as entrance was gained the same way in each case. It is believed that some of those identified with the previous theft had a hand in the last one.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of 'Bright's disease.'" F. J. Hill Drug Co. "The never substitutes."
